APPLICATION DEADLINE

5th Oct 2026

Selection Closes at 5:00 PM EAT

Community Empowerment for Sustainable Development (CESUD) invites passionate individuals, recent graduates, researchers, and community advocates to join our volunteer cohort. Work alongside local leaders, smallholder farmers, school green clubs, and youth groups across Kakamega County to drive sustainable development, climate action, and social equity.

VOLUNTEER TRACKS & ROLES

1. Climate-Smart Agriculture & Food Security

Support organic composting, school kitchen garden setups, Pro-Soil lead farmer training, and regenerative agriculture field demonstrations.

2. Girl Child Protection & Dignity Mentorship

Facilitate menstrual hygiene management (MHM) workshops, school dignity kit distribution, and psychosocial mentorship for adolescent girls.

3. Zero-Waste & Circular Economy Initiatives

Assist in bio-waste collection models, community recycling drives, and establishing sustainable school Green Clubs across Western Kenya.

4. Monitoring, Evaluation & Digital Media

Help document field impact, gather project data, create photographic & graphic stories, and assist in partnership grant reporting.
